

OGDEN NEWS

Office, 2484 Washington Avenue.

Ogden, Sunday, Dec. 3.

UTAH BOY'S VICTORY

Athol Rawlins Wins Honors in Debate at University of Michigan.

Athol Rawlins, son of former Senator Joseph L. Rawlins, has just returned from the University of Michigan debating team, after one of the most stubbornly contested preliminary battles in the history of the institution. The question under discussion was a live one—the advisability of a railroad commission with rate-making powers. Young Rawlins was on the affirmative. His immediate opponent was a candidate for congress in one of the eastern states in the last campaign, a brilliant speaker and a man of experience. The young Salt Lake showed his principal strength in rebuttal, completely demolishing the arguments of the opposition.

Athol Rawlins.

Right from the beginning young Rawlins has shown strength in debate, coupled with unusual powers of analysis. In ten preliminary debates at Ann Arbor he has not lost one. He was valedictorian of his eighth grade class in the Lowell schools, and in his sophomore year at Mercersburg academy, Pennsylvania, where he did his preliminary work. He is now taking a six-year law-literature course at Michigan and is in his fourth year at that institution. He is 23 years old.

Athletes are not being neglected in the education of this Utah boy. He is manager of athletics in the Mercersburg academy when that school won the championship in the east. He was a member of the athletic team at Michigan last year and takes a lively interest in all outdoor sports. He is a member of the Delta Chi fraternity.

FAVOR STORAGE RESERVOIR

Mass Meeting Votes for Light and Power Company's Big Project.

Again the people of Weber county in mass meeting assembled have decided that they want the proposed large storage reservoir which the Utah Light & Railway company intend building at the head of the Ogden canyon to furnish power for all purposes and to irrigate the country of the Salt Lake valley in Weber county. Notwithstanding the agitation that has been raised against the proposition since the meeting held in Huntsville some time ago, a majority of those who gathered in the Ogden tabernacle were in favor of the granting of the petition by the county commissioners, who it is expected will grant the roadway to make way for the big dam, which they have been endeavoring to locate for the past ten years.

There was much discussion at yesterday's meeting. The gathering while a domestic in the employ of Attorney H. H. Henderson was polishing a stove in the library of the Henderson home, 554 Twenty-fourth street, yesterday morning, the heat from the stove caused the stove to become overheated and the flames were carried to the curtains and other highly inflammable material, but prompt action on the part of the girl and Mrs. Henderson prevented a serious conflagration. The fire department was called, but the flames were extinguished before they had time to put out the blaze. The girl's hands were severely burned.

DIAMONDS And WATCHES. From 15 to 25 Per Cent Less.

SAL SICKLE, The Jeweler.

75 East Second South Street, Between Commercial and State Sts.

What a Druggist Says of Uricol.

Rheumatism.

Of all the patent medicines we sell (and we sell many thousands) we sell none that gives such genuine satisfaction as Uricol. We have never received a complaint in regard to this rheumatic specific—no one has ever said one word against the curative effects of this preparation. The sales have increased from day to day until our eight stores are now selling three to four gross a month. Store No. 2, 221 South Broadway, has been selling Uricol since it was first put up, and has had the largest sale, averaging about 300 bottles a month. Customers tell our clerks that they receive quick and permanent benefit from the use of Uricol, and so many chronic cases have been cured by it, where other remedies failed, that we do not hesitate to recommend it as a medicine of merit—as a medicine that will do all that is claimed for it.

SUN DRUG CO.

Per F. C. WOLF, General Manager.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 15, 1902.

Price $1.00 per bottle. If not satisfied after using four bottles, return same to our agent and get your money back.

URICOL CHEMICAL CO., LOS ANGELES, CAL.

Wholesale Department Phones 876, 877.

Retail Department Phones 964, 965, 966.

W. S. HENDERSON

Wholesale Grocer.

CORNER SECOND SOUTH AND THIRD WEST STS.

Retail Department, 267-269 Main St.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

The district school convention of District No. 1 was held last night at the North Ogden hotel. There were thirty-two delegates present and the session lasted about two hours. As was expected, the convention was decidedly interesting and resulted in a compromise whereby two candidates were named instead of one. This action leaves it up to the voters to decide which will be the choice at the school election on Dec. 6. The candidates named were B. F. Blacklock and A. G. Berrett. A short time after the session was called to order a motion was introduced by H. Barker providing for the selection of the delegates instead of one. When this motion was put to a vote, by one delegate not voting, the ballots cast were evenly divided. There were twenty-five and fifteen votes. It then remained for the chairman to decide the matter and he cast his ballot in favor of the motion. Mr. Blacklock, who is at present a member of the board of education, is a member of the convention that his opponents had resorted to trickery, which was responsible for the selection of the two delegates.

Barker, who made the motion, announced that the statement given out by Mr. Blacklock prior to the convention to the effect that he would be a delegate, irrespective of the action of the convention was entirely untrue. He then named Mr. Berrett to compete for the place.

MOTHER NOT ACCUSED.

Mrs. Clyde Moore Charged With Cruelty to Children.

A case of cruelty to children was brought to the attention of the local authorities yesterday afternoon when the two children of Mrs. Clyde Moore, aged 2 years and 7 months respectively, were taken alone to their parents' home at Twenty-third and Main streets. A discovery was made by neighbors who called at the house to see if the children were there and that the little ones were poorly clad. It appears that Mrs. Moore left the children alone in the house about half past noon to attend to some business. She did not return until late in the evening, at which time the children were found by neighbors. The matter was called to the attention of the authorities by Mrs. Walter Keller, who used some of her own children's clothing to shield the children from the police station, where they were later released upon promise that she would take care of her children until Monday, when she will appear in the juvenile court for an interview with the judge. It is stated that the children were neglected and that about three weeks ago, Mrs. Moore's husband was sentenced to 30 days in jail for neglect and cruel treatment of the same children. The Moore family recently came to Ogden from Wyoming. Their treatment of their children has aroused much public indignation.

SUIT OVER DOG.

Action for $185 Brought Against Owner of Animal.

Another dog case came up in the municipal court yesterday afternoon before Judge John D. Murphy and occupied several hours of the court's time, after which it was continued until Monday. The case involves a dog which was taken to the court by both parties to the action. Both sides were represented by attorneys and yesterday twenty witnesses were examined nearly all of which were placed upon the stand by the prosecution. A dog found on the street was taken to the court by the plaintiff, a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an action to recover $185 damages arising from the dog's injury to a carriage and injuries to the children of the plaintiff.

On Aug. 5, 1905, the Davidson children were driving the horse along Twenty-third street toward Madison street. Returning they will leave Salt Lake at 3:30 a. m. and will be accompanied by a member of the city council, is the complainant and A. Kassins, the owner of the dog, is the defendant. The case is an